

2022 CapRock Scholarship Application

John and Mary Schuele believe that education is the greatest asset and are committed to helping Cherry County students meet their educational goals, to the level their dreams permit. Along with The Kind World Foundation, John and Mary know the importance and value of post-secondary education, which is why they began the CapRock scholarship in 2021. John, a managing partner of the CapRock Ranch Golf Course, believes strongly in giving back to the community and feels there's no better way to do so than to invest in the lives of students.
